

January 27, 2017 @ the 1912 Center, Moscow, ID | 9 am—4 pm

The Value of Local Food: Community, Culture & Commerce

- 8:30 Registration & morning refreshments, Music by the Moscow High School Choir,
 Stephanie Sant, MHS Choir Director
- 9:00 Welcome to the Food Summit
 Jim Boland, on behalf of the City of Moscow / Moscow City Council & Hog Heaven Sausage
 Dr. Barbara Petty, Associate Dean & Director, UI Extension
- 9:15 City of Moscow's Poet Laureate, Tiffany Midge
- 9:30 Keynote presentation – Cultivating a Culinary Culture: The Walla Walla Story with Dr. Steven Van Ausdle, Emeritus President of Walla Walla Community College
- 10:00 The Value of Having Kids at the Table – Haiku sharing with Middle School Students from Palouse Prairie Charter School
- 10:10 Ignite! Sessions: The Community Value of Local Food
 Introduction - Amy Snively-Martinez, Backyard Harvest
 Food Access & the Whitman Co. Fresh Food Project - Ashley Vaughan, WSU CCE
 Women's Land Access for Small Scale Farming - Ryanne Pilgeram, University of Idaho
- 10:30 Break - Networking, Snacks, StoryCorps
 StoryCorps - Fiske Room
 Morning snacks & local organizations and nonprofit displays - Art Room
- 11:00 Keynote presentation— The Economic Impacts of the Moscow Farmers Market with Steve Peterson, Assistant Clinical Professor of the University of Idaho Business School
- 11:30 Ignite! Sessions—The History and Culture of Local Food
 Introduction – Nancy Chaney, Local Food Advocate
 Building Food Sovereignty – Ken Hoyt, One Sky One Earth Food Coalition
 Comfort Foods: The Appreciation of Taste – Helen Brown, University of Idaho
 International Perspectives: Local ingredients for traditional recipes – MELA, Bangladeshi cuisine
- NOON Introducing Food StoryCorps, Lunch & Networking
 Lunch - Great Room
 StoryCorps - Fiske Room
 Local nonprofits and organization displays - Art Room
- 1:20 Reconvene the Food Summit
- 1:30 Roundtable Discussions & Community Action Groups - Individuals Making an Impact
 Safe Routes to Healthy Food
 Local Kiva Loans and the Camas Community Lending Network
 Strengthening Midweek and Online Farmers Markets
 Multi-sector Marketing: Connecting communities around local food and experiences
 Maintaining Food Security and Equity as our Region Grows
 Farmer Needs in the Palouse-Clearwater
 K-12 Education and Local Food
- 2:30 BREAK for StoryCorps & Networking
- 3:00 World Beat Drumming Ensemble led by Navin Chettri
- 3:15 Art and Industry and the Value of Local Food and Beverages
 Introduction – Anthony Alvarez, Local farmer and former restaurateur
 The Brush Creek Creamery & Pie Safe Bakery Story - Aaron Alexander, Brush Creek Creamery
 Colter's Creek Winery – Mike Pearson
- 3:35 Recap
- 3:45 Recognitions and Raffle
- 4:00 Adjourn & Networking Hour with appetizers and no-host bar

Many thanks to our program sponsors for making Food Summit 2017 possible:

